

Welcome to MorningSong Worship!

Fifth Sunday after the Epiphany

February 9, 2020

TIME OF GREETING

Carole Mathis

*CALL TO WORSHIP

We are called to bring a new understanding of God: that God so loves the world.

We are the salt of the earth.

We are called to bring a new hope in God: that God gives us new life.

We are the light of the world.

Come, let us love one another with the love of God.

Let us join together in our love of God
to worship and follow Jesus.

*OPENING MEDLEY

O Worship the King/Here I am to Worship

SILENT PRAYER

UNISON PRAYER

Jesus, You are the Light of the World.

Shine Your light in us today.

Chase away the darkness of sin,
the darkness of fear and doubt and despair.

Fill us with the light of Your truth, Your Word.

Produce in us the fruit of righteousness –
the evidence that Your Holy Spirit lives in us
and works through us.

Make us a shining example of Your amazing grace,
redeeming love, and life-changing power.

May others be drawn to You through our lives. Amen.

The Rev. Dr. David Comperry retired from full-time ministry as an elder of the United Methodist Church in June, 2017. In his 45 years of full-time service, he served churches in Middle and West Tennessee and Western Kentucky, also serving the Tennessee and Memphis Conferences in many different roles. David currently works part-time as a Field Representative for the United Methodist Foundation for the Memphis and Tennessee Conferences. The son of a Methodist minister and his wife, David was born and reared in Middle Tennessee. He received his B.A. degree from Vanderbilt University and his Master of divinity and Doctor of Ministry degrees from the Candler School of Theology at Emory University. He and his wife Nancy, a native of South Georgia, have two daughters: Cindy Comperry, who lives in Nashville, and Betsy Little of Jackson, who with her husband Brad have two children, Rowan and Ben.
